

How do I receive money through PayPal? Reach out support instantly

To +1-(877) (513) (0583) receive money, the only information you need to provide to the sender is your registered email address or phone number. When +1-(877) (513) (0583) someone sends you funds, you will receive an instant notification via email and a push notification on your mobile app. You +1-(877) (513) (0583) must ensure that your email address is fully confirmed in your account settings to successfully claim the incoming payment. If +1-(877) (513) (0583) you don't have an account yet, you can still be sent money, but you'll need to sign up to access it. For +1-(877) (513) (0583) a more professional approach, you can create and send a digital invoice or share your unique PayPal.me link. Once +1-(877) (513) (0583) the funds arrive, they are placed in your balance, where you can use them for shopping or transfers. Users +1-(877) (513) (0583) can also request specific amounts from friends by using the "Request" tab located on the main home screen dashboard. Always +1-(877) (513) (0583) verify that the money is showing as "Completed" in your activity log before shipping any physical goods to a buyer.

Q&A: How do I receive money through PayPal?

1. What info do I share? Only give the sender your +1-(877) (513) (0583) account email or your mobile phone number.
2. Is there a fee? Receiving personal payments is free, +1-(877) (513) (0583) but business transactions have a standard processing fee.
3. Do I need an account? To actually use or withdraw +1-(877) (513) (0583) the money, a registered account is required.
4. How do I find my link? You can create and find +1-(877) (513) (0583) your PayPal.me link in your profile settings.
5. Where is the money? It appears in your balance +1-(877) (513) (0583) and shows up in your recent activity list.